DC 'Shakeup' Due This Month

Palisades Reservoir About Ready

The Palisades reservoir, battered by last year's quake and the topic of heavy debate ever since, may be back in business next week.

So speaks Otis Calhoun, public works director, who reports the 60-day, $10,000 repair job is just about finished. Crews are adding almost two feet of water a day to the million-gallon tank and should have it filled by the end of this week.

Health inspectors then will move in to take bacteriological tests for water safety.

In charge of the reservoir reconstruction is the firm of Contractor Edward Frazier.

Two Board Newcomers

ASSUMING four-year trustee terms on Jefferson Elementary school board Tuesday were Frank Verducci (left) and Thomas Noonan, one-two in the May balloting. They replace board chairman Hartley Appleton and Mrs. Doris Wimberly. Verducci, a school teacher in San Francisco, is a brother of the DC councilman. Noonan, a telephone company executive, lives in Colma.

Boy, 6, Struck By 'Slow' Auto; Driver Cleared

Robert Ridings, 6-years-old, 6123 Mission street, was treated at Junipero Serra Hospital for chest injuries after he was struck by a car Tuesday afternoon.

The boy was walking with an adult friend of the family, Larry Witt, when he broke away and ran out into the slow-moving traffic lane and was struck by the auto driven by Mrs. Mildred H. Roper.

Mrs. Roper, a resident of Yuba City, is currently staying at No. 9 Brumiss Court here and was absolved of liability by police. She said she was traveling only five miles per hour when she saw the man (Witt) running back across the street. She put on the brakes, but not in time, and her car rammed the child.

The mishap occurred just south of Evergreen avenue.

Vote On Manager 'Ouster'

Month of July will bring sweeping changes in Daly City government, ignited by the expected resignation of City Manager Howard Stites by Monday, July 28.

The new council majority gave Stites 90 days notice in April, setting July 28 for an official vote on his ouster.

Stites, former city manager of Burbank, has been the chief executive here since early in 1955.

Mayor Micheal DeBernardi, a "minority" voice against the city manager the past two years, was joined by new councilmen Edward Dennis and Bob St. Clair last April in the firing move against Stites.

Councilmen Joseph Verducci and Francis Pacelli insist that the city manager has administered his job with "efficiency and economy" from the start.

There has been no indication that the 3-2 stand against Stites will be reversed this month.

While a few familiar names have unofficially been mentioned for a successor, the council legally cannot begin "looking" for a replacement until Stites' resignation has been submitted and accepted.

Stites again today said "no comment" when asked by the newspaper if he would tender his resignation earlier than July 28 or if he had been successful in trying for another job elsewhere.

The city manager throughout the debates concerning him in recent council sessions, has not once publicly commented on his ouster.

The council met last night to begin paring the '58-'59 fiscal budget. They will meet in study session the night of July 10, with regular meetings set for July 14 and 28.

DISPUTES PAY RAISES

Taxpayer Says He'll Sue School Trustees

Julius Castelan, long at odds with Jefferson Elementary school board, last Wednesday filed a taxpayer's suit in Redwood City Superior Court, seeking to prevent trustees from granting pay raises to the district's two assistant superintendents.

The former city engineer, hired and then dismissed last year by the school board after he allegedly disregarded their instructions in surveying three school sites, named all five trustees and three "John Does" as defendants in his intended suit.

Castelan, self-appointed spokesman for a citizens' group opposing the July 29 special tax election, says he will serve the board with the injunction if they raise the yearly salaries of Dr. David Shapiro, JESD business manager, and Dr. Vinton Stratton, district director of instruction.

No Hikes

Trustees in regular meeting last week granted two-year extensions of contract to both men but did not mention any intended or proposed salary increases. Shapiro and Stratton each receive $12,000 a year. District Supt. Henry Weibel, who will not be re-hired after next school year, unless the board changes its stand of last December, receives $14,000 per year.

Castelan said he heard rumors that trustees in closed session last Wednesday were considering pay raises for Shapiro and Stratton. He said the district was "impoverished right now" and on an austerity program, "so why pay more in salaries?"

Board chairman Hartley Appleton, presiding over his last meeting, answered the Castelan action by citing that the school board last week did not increase the salaries of Shapiro and Stratton.

"We granted them new contracts," said Appleton. "If the new board wants to discuss salaries, it's entirely up to them."

There was no indication from any of the five board members that pay hikes for the pair

Police Prescribe 'Coffee Treatment' For Driver Here

William Chamberlain, 329 Peoria street, was treated with black coffee after his car sideswiped a parked auto, roamed across the street and rammed a PG&E utility pole at 2:30 a. m. Saturday.

Chamberlain, 25, was found on the front seat floor of his damaged car by Officer Steve Steen. There was no apparent damage to the utility pole.

The officer and the doctor's report stated that Chamberlain was apparently under the influence of liquor. The parked auto was a '47 coupe belonging to Colma Body Building Company, 7331 Mission street.

JUHS Trustee Board Duties Stay The Same

Present officers of the Jefferson High School District board of trustees were re-elected Tuesday night for the 1958-59 year.

Duties remaining the same: Chairman Elio A. Fontana, Vice Chairman Donald Miller, Clerk Mrs. Anna M. Eason, and Secretary Ed Morgan, district superintendent.

Most of the business meeting was spent in discussion with the city recreation commission on the latter's proposal to buy a portion of Westmoor High School land for the city as a recreation facility.

Morgan said that this was the first meeting between the two groups in its "policy of cooperation as it pertains to recreation." The usage gained by purchasing of school property would save the taxpayers money, lend recreation facilities to full advantage and insure full use of playground areas for re-

Brisbane Trustees Face $150,000 Suit

Three members of Brisbane Elementary School Board have been named defendants in a $150,000 damage claim, filed last week by their district superintendent, Natalie Lipman.

Miss Lipman, whose combined salary for presiding over both the Brisbane and Bayshore districts is $17,685 a year, charges the trio with libel and slander.

The trustees involved are Ellen Bhend, Margaret Galter and Edward Whitson.

Reports made public this week indicate that the Brisbane board asked for Miss Lipman's resignation in March of this year, claiming "lack of confidence" in the superintendent.

But instead of resigning, she was granted a new four-year pact at $8865 per year.

Miss Lipman engaged private detectives to interview the trustees and to tape-record board meetings.

She claims the three trustees have accused her of misusing school funds, showing favoritism to certain district employees and "engaging" in shady dealings."

Miss Lipman announced her resignation from the Brisbane district at commencement exercises last month. She did not list her reasons at that time.

The superintendent intends to file a civil suit for the damages by July 15, according to her attorney.

She has been chief school executive in Brisbane since 1942, in Bayshore since 1945.

Burglar Invades Chinese Eatery, Gets Only $5.10

Police believe there may be a possible tie-in between the Lucca Market burglary and that at the S & K Restaurant which took place sometime between 11 p.m. Monday and noon Tuesday.

The thief slit a screen door at the back of the 7384 Mission street restaurant, later had to go through a window, and when leaving went out the rear kitchen door.

So Quong, proprietor, said that $5.10 had been taken.

Lucca Store Raider Takes $556, Whiskey

Lucca's Market, 7370 Mission street, early Tuesday morning was burglarized of $556.22 and four bottles of whiskey, police reported today.

The burglar apparently went to the back of the store, climbed some stairs and stood on top of a handrail to reach the 10-foot high window. He then squeezed through the 14-by-18-inch window and took cash from the rear register and two cash registers located near the front window.

He used a meat cleaver and bottle opener in an attempt to open the store's safe. But this try failed. Rather than try to squirm his way through the window again, he broke a padlock on the back door.

Victim of the raid loss was Pasquale Stanghellini, 151 San Mateo avenue. The robbery was reported to the police by Mario Stanghellini, store clerk, of 261 1st avenue.

Lewkowitz Elected New JESD Chairman

Joseph "Joe" Lewkowitz, in his fifth year as Jefferson Elementary School District trustee, Tuesday evening was elected chairman of the board —first time he has held the position.

Michael Callan succeeds Lewkowitz as new board clerk. Callan is serving his tenth year as trustee and also comes up for re-election in 1959.

The new trustees are Thomas Noonan and Frank Verducci. Noonan was chosen assistant chairman and Mrs. Katherine Mullen is alternate clerk and trustee representative.

Both Callan and Mullen, in that order, have been chairman of the board.

Lewkowitz is a gas station proprietor, Callan a builder, Mullen a working housewife, Noonan a telephone company employee, and Verducci a school teacher.

The board set their regular meeting of July 9 for action on non-certificated salary requests. They also will hear from the administrative staff on the five alternate '58-'59 budgets at this session. If the July 29 special tax election fails, trustees want to know in advance what cuts in the curriculum will be necessary and probable.

66 (?) Police Hunt Liquor Store Bandits

By his own request, 66 policemen are trying to find a goateed robber and his friend who held up Westlake Liquors, 309 South Mayfair, at 10:30 p.m. Sunday.

"After I leave please give me five minutes. Then you can call all the cops you want—you can call 66 of them if you want to," the ivy-league clad thief said.

Clerk Jerome Jacobs, 152 Westmoor avenue, notified police and later estimated total cash missing as $119.

Jacobs stated the two men entered the store with hands in their pockets. One dangled an unlit cigarette from his lips and took his hands out of his pockets while the goateed bandit simulated having a gun.

Millbrae Woman Fined $250 For Car Crash Here

Mrs. Eleanore Louise Campbell, 41, Millbrae motorist arrested here three months ago, was found guilty of drunken driving last week in municipal court, and was sentenced to 30 day in county jail or a fine of $300. She was given 20 days to decide by Judge Thomas Bocci Jr.

The auto of Mrs. Campbell on March 13 struck a car driven by Caesar Parodi, 63, a painter who resides at 1751 Market street, sending his vehicle into a steel light pole on the corner of Bismark and Mission streets.

Anita Sanes, 50, 1050 Hanover street, was a passenger in Parodi's car. All three persons required hospital treatment.

Mrs. Campbell surrendered herself on an injury-reckless driving charge, but was found guilty of drunk driving.

WESTLAKE WOMAN

'Bookie' Wife Charged $250

The 32-year-old Westlake housewife caught in the act of making illegal horserace calls here in February paid the consequences last week in Redwood City Superior Court.

Judge Frank Blum (of Daly City) fined Mrs. Evelyn Carroll, mother of a six-year-old daughter, $250 and suspended a six-months county jail sentence, placing the woman on probation for a year.

Mrs. Carroll, whose husband was unemployed at the time of her arrest, told Blum she agreed to take a few bets on the phone for a friend who was sick in the hospital. This "friend" was never identified.

Daly City police and a deputy district attorney raided Mrs. Carroll's apartment, 32 Crestwood drive, on February 12. She refused to answer the doorbell and locked herself in the bathroom, forcing officers to break down the door.

Space In New DC Directory Now Available

Reservations for advertising space in the 1958-59 Daly City Business and Civic Directory are now being taken, Editor Harold P. Bradshaw of Marchbanks Publications announced today.

The directory will include classified listings as well as display advertisements from Daly City area businesses and professional people.

The handy guide to local phone numbers, civic organizations, municipal services, churches and schools, will be delivered free to 12,000 homes in the Greater Daly City area, sometime in late fall.

The Directory, published for the past several years by Marchbanks Publications, has proven invaluable to local residents because of the absence of a separate telephone book for the Daly City area, Bradshaw explained.

Classified listings are payable in advance, while display advertisements will be billed at time of publication.

For information on the forthcoming directory, phone PL 5-4321 and ask for display advertising department.

Deadline for advertising copy will be Tuesday, July 30, 1958.

All men's and women's clubs, PTAs, civic and social groups are reminded that a complete list of current officers, and time and place of meetings should be forwarded to this newspaper as soon as possible for inclusion in the 1958-59 Directory. Deadline for editorial matter is also September 30.

creation at all times, he pointed out.

If sold, the land should be developed primarily for junior and senior high schoolers and adults, Morgan declared. Another important aspect of the land sale, he said, would be that the two organizations would be bound in a long-term contract with the proviso that the district has the right to retain facilities during school periods as it expands.

The sale would complement and augment recreation facilities, as seven acres would be added to the city program, Morgan stated.

This type of cooperation also will take place in Pacifica when the two new high schools come into being there, Morgan declared. "We are already laying long-range plans for Pacifica development and cooperation between the two units," the superintendent said.

The recreation commission will draft a tentative plan which will be presented to the school board on July 14.

The remaining portion of the meeting was devoted to size and first additions to Westmoor High. A decision on this project is due July 14.

Present at the meeting were recreation commission members Louis Larcombe, Edmund Cavagnaro, Joseph Sarto and Mrs. Eason.

Also attending were Councilman Bob St. Clair, City Attorney Paul Hupf, Fire Chief Elmer Kennedy and Recreation Director Dee Van Nest.

ROBERT Stein, son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Stein, 43 Windsor drive, Daly City, for the second straight year is awarded the San Francisco Boy's Club Choral Group trophy. Professor Harold Hollingsworth, choral group director, makes the presentation. A soprano, Robert attends Benjamin Franklin school.

GETS SCHOLARSHIP

Jeff High Football Ace Tapia Undergoes Surgery For Bad Knees

Paul Tapia, Jeff High quarterback who was Northern California's top prep thrower last fall, Monday underwent surgery on both knees at Peninsula Hospital. He will be back home in about a week.

The operation was long-overdue for the 17-year-old athlete, who this fall enters Humboldt State on a four-year athletic scholarship.

First suffering cartilage damage in grammar school, Paul was bothered repeatedly by knee trouble throughout his busy sports career at Jeff.

He will be able to join the Humboldt State varsity as a freshman. Doctors claim the surgery should bring his knees up to playing par.

Coach at the Arcata-located college is Phil Sarboe, former head man of the Washington State Cougars.

'POPULAR DEMAND'

New Midget Loop Begins Next Week

By popular demand, Daly City Parks and Recreation Department has extended Midget League competition by announcing a summer loop, scheduled to begin July 8.

Broadmoor Youth Association (unbeaten city champs), the Columbia Park Boys and the Matsox are the only regular teams which will be unable to play in the summer league. Each has other commitments.

Already signed for the new league are the PAL Red Sox, PAL Giants, PAL No. 1, PAL No. 2, San Pedro Lunch, Westlake Flying A, BYA Indians, South Sunset Whites, Portola Yankees, and the DC Reds.

More teams may enter by calling PL 5-0850 extension 18, department of parks and recreation.

Ralph's Opens Title Defense With 23-0 Win

The 1958 Adult Twilight Softball League, sponsored by Daly City Department of Parks and Recreation, got off to a flying start at Marchbanks Park, when last year's championship team, Ralph's Cleaners, showed no signs of stumbling, as they whipped Stumble Inn, 23-0.

Wm. Lagomarsino & Co. downed the No Names, 11-2. The Daly City Eagles took the Coastside Sea Lions, 10-9. Daly City Drugs had a bye.

Bill Mendosa tossed a nifty two-hitter for Ralph's Cleaners as his mates rapped 18 hits. Catcher L. Leva got both hits for Stumble Inn.

No Comment

Shapiro and Stratton, because of their professional status, said they would prefer not to comment on the former city engineer's intended suit.

Castelan, active in the move to defeat the first special tax election in May, has publicly challenged the administration and the Save-Our-Schools citizens committee for "issuing untrue statements and scare tactics" in pre-July 29 election publicity.

Castelan maintains that the $2.50 maximum tax rate asked at the polls is too high for the average taxpayer and claims a rate closer to $2.10 is needed instead. On May 27, the school district's request for a $2.20 maximum tax rate was defeated by voters, though the precinct turnout was extremely low.

Appearing again to protest the July 29 tax election last week at the SOS Committee meet, Castelan said he was "humiliated and denied courtesy" by the SOS group and members of the school board who attended the meeting in an unofficial capacity.

More than half of the audience of more than 100 walked out when Castelan was allowed to speak, he declared. Several residents phoned the newspaper deploring the "treatment" Castelan got from the SOS group.

SOS chairmen Arthur Huelse and Martin Orloff replied that Castelan was given a chance to speak, but both admitted some of the remarks made to Castelan by certain individuals present "were regrettable."

Second Chance

Orloff said Castelan had agreed to attend the SOS meeting this Wednesday night at General Pershing school, 631 Hanover street, starting at 7:30 p.m.

"The committee is prepared to answer any questions Mr. Castelan has," said Orloff. "Our function is to give citizens the facts as they exist, which I think we have done thus far."

Castelan said he and "many others wonder why the district asks a $2.50 maximum on July 29 when the request was $2.20 and was denied by voters May 27."

"Granting executive staff pay raises," he says, "isn't consistent with the district's statement that the school system would be seriously hampered if the July 29 election fails."

"On one hand," said Castelan, "they want to raise salaries, then on the other, they tell us that they'll have to cut kindergarten, transportation and summer recreation if residents don't vote yes."

"People weren't fooled the first time the tax election failed. And I don't think they will be fooled July 29," he concluded.

The American Foundation for the Blind has established a new division of community services to provide for more sustained service to communities and agencies for the blind.

Site Completion Contracts Let On Two Schools

Contracts for site completion work at Vista Grande and Vista Mar schools were awarded last week by elementary district trustees.

Erbentraut & Summer got the Vista Mar project at $57,345 and Herrero Brothers assumed the Vista Grande job for $29,959. The work at both sites was let with 60-day deadlines.

Actual construction deadline at long-delayed Vista Mar elementary, on Southgate in Westlake, is July 15. Trustees will enforce penalty action against the contractor. The school should have been ready February 15.

Board chairman Hartley Appleton and trustee Doris Wimberly last week completed trustee duty. Their replacements, via the recent election, Tom Noonan and Frank Verducci, took oaths of office at the same meeting.

Designation of new board officers occurred last night at a special meeting—too late for press time.

Matter of pay raises for the district's classified personnel and assistant superintendents was left in the laps of the new board. Many of these decisions hinge on outcome of the July 29 special tax election.

Because of the tax election passage possibilities, the district has to draft at least five '58-'59 budgets. If the ballot outcome is negative, the new budget will total $2,255,591 on the present $1.50 tax maximum. If the July 29 election is successful, the budget will amount to more than $2.5 million based on a $2.50 tax ceiling.

The proposal for furnishing school transportation was tabled until the July 23 regular meting. Next regular board session is July 9.

Business Manager David Shapiro recommended that Zellerbach Paper Company receive the bid for paper and Hillhouse Incorporated the miscellaneous supplies bid. Trustee Mike Callan asked that new bids be taken for art supplies These recommendations were accepted.

A $1,350.86 change order for the seven classroom additions at Benjamin Franklin school was granted.

The 18-day delay by Mid-State Construction Company on the new Franklin classrooms did not bring a penalty The board noted that the contractor finished within the contract time.

The board will decide whether to let bids for painting Westlake, Garden Village and Woodrow Wilson schools on July 29—another decision depending on the tax election.

Approximately 15 to 20 instructors are still needed for next semester, according to Dr. Vinton Stratton, director of instruction. The board accepted and hired Robleigh Marr, Robert Daugherty, Kathryn Snell, Helen Stanley, Beverly Sterling, Sydney Warren, Reba Schwilk, Donald Knudsen, Helen Asplund and Ann Shaw.

Retirement of Aileen Suber, Marie Traynor and Alma Ledwith was noted and passed with regret by trustees.

Thirty persons were appointed for 10 precincts as election officers July 29.

A trip will be taken to the Christen dairy lands July 12 by board members to scan possible school sites.

Replacement of the county audiotometrist who recently left the job was taken under study.

The district has asked the State Allocations board for a new hearing on the General Pershing site loan next Wednesday, July 9, in Sacramento.

Telegrams from Congressman J. Arthur Younger and Senator William Knowland notified the board that $28,000 in federal assistance funds had been approved and $21,758 certified for immediate payment.

Westlake Board Appoints Mac Lean To Fill Vacancy

M. A. MacLean, resident of 72 Fairmont drive, Monday night was named to the board of directors of Westlake Improvement Association.

He and Virgil P. Anderson fill the vacancies of former chairman Casimir Norton and assistant chairman Charles Santuccio.

Terms of MacLean and Anderson expire with those of fellow directors this December.

July regular meeting of WIA is next Monday night, 8 p.m., at 95 South Mayfair.

Citizens will be granted five-minute time limits in discussing the "pros and cons" of Jefferson Elementary School District's special tax election of July 29.

The American Foundation for the Blind in the last twelve months recorded 75 new titles on Talking Book long-playing records for the use of the blind. More than 2,500 different books are available for America's estimated 340,000 blind people, distributed by the Library of Congress, Washington, D. C.

LAW IN ACTION

ACCRETION

In early days bitter disputes arose over land boundaries, especially where marked by streams. For as the stream bed shifted, the boundaries changed. With years a river could slowly add land to its east bank, say, at the expense of the land owner on the west bank. Here the law of "accretion" helps to set boundaries and thus end disputes.

1. Where land forms imperceptibly upon a stream's bank, that land belongs to the owner of the bank (subject to any existing right of way over it).
2. Except where the land grant says otherwise, the owner takes to the ordinary high water mark when the land borders to tidewater.
3. When the land borders on a tideless navigable lake or stream, the owner takes to the edge of the water at low-water mark.
4. In other cases the owner takes to the middle of the lake or stream.

Land deposited imperceptibly by accretion belongs to the owner of the bank.

When a stream tears away a large piece of land, the owner who lost it may reclaim it within a year after the other land owner takes possession of it.

The rule of accretion applies only to rivers and streams. But a similar common law rule applies also to land on the ocean, depending on the parties' intent.

The law of accretion, like other law, serves two main purposes: To forestall disputes and to do justice. In the early days, when violence might break out over a question of boundary, both purposes were important—as they are today.

DC Coed Studies Social Work At College In East

Miss Lenore Kramer of Daly City is enrolled as a first year student at the Smith College School for Social Work, which has opened its 1958 session in Northampton, Mass. She is a graduate of the University of California and has been acting child welfare worker, department of public welfare in Juneau, Alaska.

The Smith College School for Social Work, which will observe its fortieth anniversary this year, awards the degree of master of social science upon the fulfillment of three summer sessions of academic work on the Smith campus, and two intervening winter sessions of carefully supervised field work in one of the cooperating clinics and agencies affiliated with the school. This year there are 140 students from 30 states and eight foreign countries.

Although the minimum requirements of professional and technical jobs in work with the blind involve considerable training, experience and study, the $3,000-$4,400 average annual salary level is equal to the amounts paid industrial and commercial workers whose jobs require only a relatively small amount of background preparation, according to a report released by the American Foundation for the Blind.

The American Foundation for the Blind has sent out 25,210 pieces of literature about blindness in the last twelve months from its Department of Public Education.

Something For Everyone

By Samuel Chandler
City Librarian

American women are said to be the world's best-dressed, best groomed, and most beautiful. The poet, Longfellow, found them "Beautiful in form and feature, lovely as the day." Surely the work of American beauticians has contributed to this happy state of affairs. And fortunately many beauty experts have recorded their secrets in books that can be found in both branches of the Daly City Public Library.

One of the most recent titles is Eleanore King's "Glorify Yourself." The author, who is a leading Hollywood glamour expert and a former syndicated columnist, covers ways of making the most of natural beauty, the best use of cosmetics, tips for sparkling conversation, how to dress, diet and exercise.

Two other recent books — "The Westmore Beauty Book" and "Lilly Dache's Glamour Book"—also give step-by-step advice on every beauty problem.

Other practical titles include "Secrets of Charm," by John Robert Powers; "Look Younger, Live Longer" by Benjamin Hauser; Josephine Lowmans's "Four Weeks to Beauty"; and "Anita Colbys Beauty Book."

"Teen-age Glamour," by Adah Broadbent, and Edith Heel's "Teen-age Manual" are slanted especially to the teen-age girl.

Hints on how to dress well are covered in such books as Mildred Ryan's "Sew Smartly," Claire McCardell's "What Shall I Wear?" Mary Evan's "Better Clothes for Your Money," and Elizabeth Hawe's "It's Still Spinach."

One of the most significant books is by an Englishman, Louis Stanley. His work, "The Beauty of Woman," is divided into two sections. Part one traces man's concept of beauty from Ancient Egypt to the present time. From it one learns that the secret of beauty in woman has always been the same, but it is what women have done and continue to do to enhance their beauty that has changed with the times.

Part two has ten chapters, each being a discussion of the qualities of character that create beauty—spiritual beauty for example. The last chapter is entitled "Beauty as Others See It." This chapter alone makes Mr. Stanley's book worth reading.

County Leads California In Cancer Funds

San Mateo county's 1958 cancer campaign fund drive is continuing to climb over the $80,780 goal, reaching an all-time record of some $87,000, the highest in county history, today announced Cancer Society President Mrs. Albert A. Hedge.

The county is now leading on a per capita basis in contributions for the state of California.

"The wonderful generosity and response of the residents of San Mateo county makes this possible — combined with the dedicated efforts of our 4000 volunteer workers," she said.

The society's board of directors' meeting held at the Villa Hotel in San Mateo, recently heard Dr. Robert W. Jamplis of Atherton outline the need for a cytology program in this county to curb deaths from uterine cancer, which annually nationally affects 35,000 women.

He reminded that last year 19,000 women were cured of uterine cancer, but 16,000 died. "It is to reduce this incidence of death that we are urging a cytology program which means detecting cancer in its pre-invasive stages through vaginal smears." Dr. Jamplis cautioned against stampeding a county-wide program to provide necessary check-ups without adequate preparation. He outlined the manner in which a cytology committee should be set up with equal representation from the county medical society and the lay members of the Cancer Society. Help of technicians and training of more technicians is imperative, Dr. Jamplis emphasized.

TV and Radio

By Mona Baker

Recently KPIX revamped their daytime schedule and came up with what they refer to as "sparkling" new programs —but somehow after studying the programs for some time, we cannot help but feel that some "sparkle" has gone out of their schedule. Mainly we feel the loss of the delightful pre-school program, "Adventure School" with Marion Koehler Rowe. An experienced nursery school teacher, Mrs Rowe hosted one of the leading children's programs on the air. In her calm, relaxed way she skillfully guided the youngsters through a wonderful experience of music, games and activities. We are sure most mothers were extremely grateful that they could turn on their television set on a busy morning and have available such a fine program for their children. As for entertainment nothing is more entertaining than watching a small child completely absorbed in what he is doing, and participating with all the energy of his small being in creating something, whether it be a dance or a picture.

We are pleased to see that KPIX has wisely scheduled a daily "live" with teenagers participating emceed by Ted Randal, a capable master of ceremonies...but we hope they won't forget the little tots.

NEW PROGRAMS — For the bicycle set, a new program "Discovery at Brookfield Zoo" premiered last week over KQED (Fri. 7:30 p.m.) featuring Mary Lela Grimes who received the Sylvania Award this year for her program "Discovery."

With one of the Bay Area's leading musical authorities, Jonathan Schiller, as narrator, a new full hour local radio show "The San Francisco Federal Hour" began last Sunday afternoon over KCBS.

Over KRON-TV, starting July 6, "Lassie" will be seen on Sundays at 7 p.m. while the exciting program "Sea Hunt" will begin weekly telecasting on Tuesdays at 7 p.m.

A recent change on KTVU's schedule includes "Warner Bros. Theater" on Saturdays at 8 p.m. in place of "Mystery Theatre." The features are selected from KTVU Warner Bros. film library.

N. Gray & Company Celebrates 108th Year In Business

N. Gray & Company, one of the nation's oldest funeral directors, is celebrating its 108th anniversary today.

During its long existence, the pioneer San Francisco firm has provided memorial services for many of the West's leading citizens and its name is closely woven into the colorful fabric of Northern California's history.

Like most of the San Francisco firms that started in the turbulent days of the Gold Rush, N. Gray & Co. had a modest beginning. Nathaniel Gray, who founded the business, started with a two-room wooden building, the front of which was the "funeral parlor" and the back a carpenter shop for assembling and polishing caskets which were shipped dismantled from the East.

The hearse was a wagon covered with black cambric and drawn by two mules. From this humble start, the firm has grown to become one of the largest of its kind in Northern California with two complete establishments in San Francisco and one, under the name of Crosby-N. Gray & Company, in Burlingame.

N. Gray & Co. is one of the few firms of comparable age that has maintained ownership and management in the founder's family. Kendrick W. Miller, present head of the company, is a great grandson of Nathaniel Gray.

The American Foundation for the Blind granted 20 scholarships to blind persons in the last twelve months.

Plumbing Industry Introduces "Dressatories" For New Homes

A great new idea in planning the bedroom-bathroom area of the home for greater privacy, utility and convenience has been developed by the San Mateo County Plumbing Industry, according to Fred A. Schmitz, executive of the plumbing organization.

The plan calls for a separate dressing room—or dressatory—for every member of the family. Two are located off what used to be the master bedroom, one for the wife and one for the husband, and others adjacent to the children's bedrooms.

Each dressatory is equipped with all facilities for dressing and grooming, including a clothes closet, built-in chest of drawers, a vanity lavatory and a toilet, which is partly concealed behind a partition. A tub-shower is situated between every two dressatories, with access from either direction.

With the clothes closets and dressers eliminated from the bedrooms those rooms take on a new appearance and function as bedroom-lounges. In addition to a Hollywood-style bed, each bedroom-lounge contains comfortable chairs, reading lamps, writing desk, television and other leisure furniture. Replacing the old-fashioned bedroom, which was left unoccupied most hours of the day, the new bedroom-lounge can be used at any time as a place of retreat and relaxation.

This radical re-arrangement of the sleeping-dressing-bathing area of the home is called "Privazoning" according to Schmitz. It will bring luxury living to moderate priced homes, he believes.

The first house utilizing Privazoning has been built at Miami, Florida and is attracting tremendous attention, Schmitz declared, and said that several Peninsula builders are planning to incorporate it into custom-built homes.

Boys To Swarm Jeff High Field Thursday For 'Junior Olympics'

This Thursday, July 3 the Daly City Department of Parks and Recreation, Jefferson Elementary School District and James L. Snell P.T.A. will stage the annual Junior Olympics at the Jefferson High football field, for all playgrounds east of Junipero Serra boulevard.

Participants will be allowed to enter two track events and one field event or two field events and one track event plus the relay. Practice is being held this week at the eastern playgrounds. Interested youngsters are being asked to sign up with their playground leaders.

On the same day, July 3, all playgrounds west of Junipero Serra boulevard will have scheduled a "Surprise Special" event. Each playground site will hold its own special event. The special event to be held will be announced at the respective playgrounds by the leaders. Participants are to contact their playground leaders for permit slips and complete information.

Playgrounds east of Junipero Serra boulevard will hold their Surprise Day on Thursday, July 10.

The age groups for this event are as follows: Boys A, 13 to 15 years; Boys B, 11 and 12 years; Boys C, 10 years and under; Girls A, 12 to 15 years; Girls B, 11 years and under.

Pacifica Teen Loop Features High-Scoring

High-scoring games were in vogue last week as the lowest total of runs scored in Pacifica Teen-age League games during any one contest was 15.

The Cardinals' Steve Wiedl pitched his first victory as his team nipped the Red Sox, 14-13. Winning pitcher Terry Jeske of the Giants had plenty of backing at the plate. His squad scored 35 times while the Braves managed but 8 tallies.

Don Katona of the Yankees shut out the Indians, 15-0, as the league leaders moved their unbeaten skein to six games.

In last Wednesday's action, the Red Sox smothered the Braves, 9-6, and the Yankees lashed the Cardinals, 15-4. Jerry Getchell had 5 for 5 for the winners.

On July 5 players in the league will canvass their families, friends and neighbors to solicit funds for additional equipment. Donations of any amount will be welcomed by Pacifica teams.

Imprisonment for debt was abolished in the United States in 1798.

Holiday celebrations are a good old American custom . . . and one of the happiest is the 4th of July. Your local merchants are celebrating with many good buys that should fit right into your holiday plans.

If you've planned a picnic, it usually includes swimming, and to be the "belle of the beach," we think you should look at the smart bathing suits at GRANTS. A chic black gracefully shirred style caught our eye . . . as did a perky emerald green with a clever rhinestone button trim.

For that hopiday trip what could be more fun than driving in a smart new Rambler from CONTINENTAL CAR CO. located at 200 Taraval. We were impressed by the attractive interiors, comfortable seats and best of all economy of operation. You can take a long drive and have money left over to help pay for dinner along the way.

Of course you will be having your hair done for the weekend. Tastefully decorated in soft pink and green and centrally located at 6446 Mission is a new beauty salon — CAPRI BEAUTY SALON. Remember, they will be open Thursday evening of this week for your convenience.

For this holiday weekend too . . . particularly if you are planning a picnic . . . what is smarter and more comfortable than short-slacks. Just in time for the 4th, PENNEYS has received a new shipment of sleek, tapered-leg capris, in all the newest shades for $1.77.

If you plan to stay home and catch up on those construction projects remember WHITE LUMBER COMPANY has all the material you need. Speaking of do-it-yourself, they will be starting construction within the next couple of weeks on a modern redwood and glass store which will carry a complete line of building hardware as well as displays of materials needed for do-it-yourself projects.

We hope you have had time to stop by PALACE PIANO COMPANY and listen to the beautiful new Thomas organ with the built-in hi-fi—an organ and phonograph all in one. Because of the unique construction of the organ console, all your favorite recordings sound like the orchestra is playing right in your living room.

This long-week-end is a good time to take care of papering that room you have been planning, so we hope you will take advantage of the 20 percent reduction at FULLER PAINT COMPANY on their Boxer, pre-pasted, plastic-coated wallpaper in a wonderful selection of patterns for every room.

After working all day at home, you certainly won't want to bother to cook, so why not plan to eat out. We think the whole family will enjoy the delicious prime ribs of beef featured at ED's CHUCK WAGON on West Portal—all you can eat for only $2.55.

If you have been thinking about getting a new water heater, you probably will have time this weekend to install it. We know the feminine member of the family will thoroughly approve of the smartly styled streamlined cabinet of the 5-star General found at TROMBORG'S.

Speaking of celebrating . . . all the salesmen at ART COLVIN REALTY are in a celebrating mood because of the recent story in the Wallstreet Journal discussing real estate trends . . . and the only bay area realty firm mentioned in the article was ART COLVIN REALTY.

Westlake, Broadmoor Kids Eye Annual 'Junior Olympics' Tests

Next Thursday, July 10, the Daly City Department of Parks and Recreation, the Jefferson Elementary School District and the Snell PTA will stage their third special event of the summer program, the annual "Junior Olympics," for the Westlake and Broadmoor areas. The site for this occasion is Westlake Park. Starting time is 1 p.m.

Age classifications for this popular event are: Boys, Class A, 13 to 15 years; Class B, 11 and 12 years; Class C, 10 years and under; Girls, Class A, 12 to 15 years; Class B, 11 years and under.

Track events will include Boys, Class A, 100-yard dash; all age groups, 50-yard dash, 60-yard shuttle, and the 240-yard relay. Field events for all groups will consist of the triple standing broad jump, softball distance throw, and softball accuracy throw.

No track shoes will be allowed. Each participant may enter two track events and one field event, or two field events and one track event plus the relay. Each playground may enter a maximum of five entries in each event except the relay in which one team only may be entered.

Playgrounds west of Junipero Serra boulevard are now having trials. Interested youngsters should contact playground leaders for positions on the Olympics teams.

Playgrounds in the east section of the city will hold a surprise special event on Thursday, July 10.

Belmont Speedway Books Three Shows For '4th' Holiday

Belmont Speedway will be busy keeping 4th of July week speed fans entertained, with Promoter Ted Smyth presenting three shows.

Highlighting the auto races Wednesday night, will be the battle between Ed Andrews and Rick Henderson, current point leaders for the California hardtop championship.

Friday night, July 4, the action-packed motorcycle racers take over with an 18-event program, which has kept the fans on the edge of their seats all season.

The special added attraction is Saturday night, when 100 autos will compete in the Marathon Auto Derby, a hair-raising king-size destruction event which has jammed the stands yearly.

Salaries of professional and technical personnel serving the blind are so inadequate as to make it possible for newcomers to consider acquiring the background and training needed to enter the field only at a great personal sacrifice, according to a report released by the American Foundation for the Blind.

Druggists Halt OLPH Behind Krohn, 3-0

Behind the one-hit pitching of Barry Krohn, Daly City Drugs romped to a 3-0 win over OLPH last weekend. Krohn struck out ten batters as the Daly City team moved into a tie for first place with the Li'l Village club which beat Robinson Construction, 10-1.

In the other Sunday Summer League game, Gene Hessler threw a no-hitter as Dee's Associated staggered to a 7-5 win over the PAL nine. The PAL's runs came on walks, hit batsmen and an error.

40 Daly City PALs Witness SF Ball Game

Forty Daly City Police Athletic League youngsters were treated to box seats and free hot dogs, peanuts and cokes at Sunday's annual Fire-Police charity baseball game at Seals stadium.

Escorted by Officer John K. Coleman, the lads watched the police accumulate 21 runs to the fire department's 17.

The eleventh annual contest sold 22,000 tickets for the benefit of the Needy Children of San Francisco Christmas Fund.

Quartermidgets Perform At Kezar In Holiday Show

LOCALS SWEEP EIGHT OF 10 MATCHES HERE

Daly City Police Athletic League today sports a trophy at City Hall after Friday night's bouts which saw the local boxing team beat the South San Francisco PAL club in 8 of 10 bouts at Westmoor High gym.

Donated by the Lions clubs of the two cities, the trophy will go permanently to the squad which wins three out of five matches between the two teams in the next five years.

The trophy stands three feet high and shows a boxer standing on top of a cup. On each side there are two eagles with spread wings. There is a wood base with four olive branches engraved in gold as are the other aforementioned parts.

Part of the inscription reads, "Lions Club - Sportsmanship Perpetual Award."

With nationally-rated middleweight, Joey Giambra looking on, Al Lujan was awarded the "outstanding boxer" award Friday night. This was the third time the Daly City PAL receipted for such an honor. Richard Nunes won the award at San Bruno and Dan Hermosillo copped honors at Vallemar.

Victors for Daly City were: Mike Crudo over Stanley Mattos, Al Lujan over Ronald Orr, Gary Beecher over Robert Conover, Arthur Matias over John Linneman, Richard Nunes over Mike Rayburn, Tony Ramerez over Manuel Lopez, Fred Howard over Dan Noonan and Dan Hermosillo over Gary Ryan.

South San Francisco winners were Andy Koelling over Mike Fierce and Rich Ramirez over Tom Coop.

In exhibition bouts Daly City's Ed Banos faced Joey Fierce and South San Francisco's Ken Brusa vied with Ron Payne. Banos and Brusa were declared winners.

A wrestling match between instructor Bob Malcoln and Hilton Gillory filled intermission minutes.

Presentations were made by Daly City Police Chief Roland Petrocchi, Daly City PAL President John K. Coleman, South San Francisco Chief of Police Louis Belloni, and South San Francisco PAL President Gus Nicolopulos.

Mayor Micheal DeBernardi and Councilmen Bob St. Clair and Frank Pacelli represented the city at the matches.

Coleman said that Officers Ed Beecher and Wayne Carr and citizens Ralph Matteucci, Jimmy Crudo, Steve Passafiume and William Chalmers have spent one night a week with the boys for the past five months getting them into shape.

He said that most of the credit for the success of the match, which brought $400 profit to the Daly City PAL, goes to these instructors who trained the youths.

South San Francisco's instructors were Nicolopulos and Officer Ernie Cortez.

Coleman also offered thanks to Robert D. Sherwood, who's wife Helen, works in the police office, for donating time as master of ceremonies. He said Sherwood has been quite active in all phases of PAL activities.

His thanks also went out to the school board for the free use of gym facilities and to Dr. Lawler A. Drees who attended as ring-side physician.

ONE of liveliest bouts on the DC-South City Police Athletic League card Friday night found Ed Banos decisioning teammate Joey Fierce in a special three-round exhibition. The Daly City battlers walloped the Industrial City squad, winning eight of ten scraps.

Unbeaten Broadmoor Midgets Capture City Championship

Art Colvin's BYA Midgets last week won the Daly City Midget League championship by defeating the Daly City Reds by a rousing 23-3 score.

Bruce Hix was the pitching and hitting start for the winners. He allowed but one hit while cracking out two home runs.

Doubles went into the scorebook for Gary Mendosa, John Vocke, Allan Contreras and John Bennett. Singles were stroked by Dan Colangelo, Skipper Smith, Dan Dempsey, Jim Fisher, Marc Mallinger, Fred Del Sarto, Tim Orlich and Ron Johnson.

Undefeated BYA won 15 games in league play. Coach Randy Hix has turned over managerial duties to Tony Contreras and George Mendosa who will enter the team in the junior division of the San Francisco Recreation Department. The team will also have a new nickname, the "Giants."

Hix plans to rebuild the team for the Midget League again next spring. Everett Heick, athletic director of BYA, announced that the BYA will field a new midget team in the Daly City Midget Summer League and the San Francisco Midget League.

Games are to start this week in both leagues. The team will be known as the BYA "Indians" and will be coached by Ralph and John Arnott.

Rec Department Asks For Adult Ball Sign-ups

Director Dee Van Nest today bemoaned that there is a minimum of adult participation in any type of baseball program within Daly City. With the exception of Gateway Chevrolet and Westlake Merchants there seems to be no existing adult baseball teams, he said.

Facilities are available, and the Department of Parks and Recreation is anxious to accomodate all adults interested in baseball.

With these facts in mind the department is interested in knowing:

1. If there are organized teams, or if any local service club, church, or other organization would like to enter a team in an adult baseball league.

2. If there are individuals not presently on a baseball team who would be interested on week days during the twilight hours, on Saturdays or on Sundays.

Persons interested in such a program or desiring more information should call PL 6-0850, extension 18, before June 9.

Bob St. Clair . . . Country's Only Councilman Playing Pro Football

By Lou Lucia

There is only one city councilman playing football in the National Professional League. Only one member of the San Francisco 49ers is a native of San Francisco. This distinction belongs to Bob St. Clair, Daly City councilman, All-Pro tackle and father of four children.

St. Clair, 6-8½ and weighing 275-pounds, isn't the bully type, however, as his boyish smile belies the affableness of his personality. He was named rookie lineman of the year in 1953 and has played first string for the 49ers ever since. He was an All-Pro selection for three years.

Fellow councilman Joe Verducci coached the "fastest big man in the League" when he was attending Poly High School in San Francisco.

As the only city councilman in the league, St. Clair this fall will receive mailed information about matters to be taken up at the weekly council meetings. He will study these over, and already has permission from the 49ers' front office to attend all council meetings.

A former USF and Tulsa standout, St. Clair will try to pare down 15 pounds to a playing weight of 26 pounds at the training sessions in Redwood City which begin August 1.

The 49ers dietician prescribes the meals and the player may eat all he wants of the selected foods, St. Clair said. Certain fines are meted out at spring training time. A cigarette at a premium of $25 or $100-$500 for a glass of liquor is expensive for these transgressions.

Move To Tulsa

The "blue-eyed bomber" was the third draft choice of the San Francisco team in 1951 and was one of the nine players drafted from that USF all-star aggregate. At Tulsa he starred in the line for a team that compiled a 10-1 effort and lost to the University of Floriday, 14-13, in the Gator Bowl.

At this point, he lost his college ambition of playing in the famed East-West game in San Francisco. He had been asked to play for the West in the annual classic but his loyalty belonged to the Tulsa squad and he participated in the Gator Bowl clash.

His wife, Ann, and four children, Lynn, 8, Gary, 5, Gail,4, and Greg, 2, make up the largest part of St. Clair's home life at 76 Ocean Grove in Westlake. The young father (27) believes he has from two to five years left in the pro game-barring injuries.

St. Clair hasn't answered the service call as the height limitations of 6-6 ruled him out, even though he holds a reserve officer's commission from University of Tulsa. He has fought, though—in the ring. At Tulsa he was asked during his first week on campus to do battle for the school.

He met the preceding year's Golden Gloves champion from Oklahoma A & M and made short work of him, knocking him out in 27 seconds of the first round. He doesn't like the fight game, and retired with one win and no losses as his ring "career."

Bob's father is a mere 5-10 and there are no other towering folks in the family. Perhaps the raw steak that St. Clair relishes helped him to attain his height and weight. Asked why he didn't like cooked meat, St. Claim remarked, "I don't like greasy food." He added, "Well, sometimes I'll order cooked food at a restaurant."

Shoulder Injury

Raw steak or not, the 49ers enjoyed the "beef" and speed that St. Clair supplied to the line last season when he returned to the squad after missing seven games because of a shoulder separation. The team won the following three games before losing to Detroit in that unforgettable championship play-off.

St. Clair claims the New York Giant game, (his first after the injury) was his best-ever effort. His choice as his biggest thrill was being picked "rookie lineman of the year" in 1953.

Asked if linemen resented the fact that backfield men received more praise, St. Clair answered: "We're just as essential as the backfield men, but we feel that it depends on how successful we are in blocking. A well-played game gives us personal satisfaction.

"It doesn't matter how good the backfield runner is. On fair blocking, a good back will shine. The average runner won't The game is built around the backfield and the main focal point is the ball. Therefore, the backfield quartet is bound to come in for more praise. We feel a game is a team effort and do not look at praise individually."

He listed Hugh McElhenny, 49er teammate, as the best runner in pro ball and had high praise for Ollie Matson, Tank Younger and Rick Casares. "Matson is a different type of runner than McElhenny. He thrives on a change of pace," St. Clair continued.

"Younger is hard to bring down and Casares a floater that hits the line and slides off to the nearest opening," St. Clair reflected. (Most of St. Clair's judgements came on the basis of what he has seen in combat in limited action as a defensive end).

In the line, St. Clair has great respect for ex-USF teammate Gino Marchetti of Baltimore and former stars Arnie Weinmeister of the Giants and Les Bingaman of the Lions. "I played with Marchetti, and he has exceptionally good speed. I usually play hardest against him because we're friends," he stated.

For this same reason, he said, there is resentment a player holds for a team that has traded him. "It is a personal pride to play better against a friend and show him you can outplay him," he said.

He described Weinmeister as a "just plain rough" tackle and Bingaman as one of the hardest players to move out of the way. Bingaman tipped the scales at 350 pounds.

St. Clair gave two prerequisites for linemen. They should have speed in line play and they must be able to "control" a man after they hit him.

"You're out there risking your life in a football game," St. Clair added. "Imagine two players weighing 275 pounds apiece standing but six inches away from each other. When the ball is snapped the two rush forward making an impact that would make two baby tanks recoil.

He said a $100 fine is levied against a player thrown out of a game no matter what the reason for his dismissal. As a rookie he was paced opposite Leo Nomellini in a scrimmage. St. Clair's voice reached a high pitch when he exclaimed, "He almost killed me."

St. Clair is a chain market representative for Burgermeister during the off-season. He is also a rabid rooter for the San Francisco Giants and helped to form the 49er basketball team with end Gordy Soltau.

St. Clair tucked his gold, battle-scarred helmet under his arm and left the office feeling like a target on the Mike Wallace show. Four Marchbanks' staff members had been "grilling" him for over an hour during the interview.
